

WINNERS OF THE 2011 LOCAL HISTORY PHOTOGRAPHIC AWARDS

CATEGORY ONE — Photographs over 30 years old PRE-1930

- Trish Andrews

Family fun in the back garden of the Burton's home at 100 East Street, Mount Hawthorn, 1920s.

- Otto Walkemeyer

Bread delivery by the West Perth Bakery of B Walkemeyer – possibly in Beaufort Street, between Newcastle and Bulwer streets, c. 1902

SPECIAL MENTION

- Kim Paterson

Edward T Jackson, with his wife and young son James, outside his business at 234 Carr Street, Leederville, 1917.

1930-1949

- Leeola Loughnan

The Pittaway family with family friend Molly Carruthers around the kitchen table at 56 Auckland Street, North Perth, 1948

- Marie Slyth

Marie standing in front of her father's 1928 Buick, parked at the rear of 10 Strathcona Street, West Perth, 1942. The headlights of the car are blackened as a war time requirement.

SPECIAL MENTION

- Otto Walkemeyer

Annual Labour Day Procession in the City, 1939. Many local bakers would have taken part in this parade to demand better working conditions with a 40 hour week.

1950-1980

- Winsome Armstrong

Three Tilbrook sisters: Glenis and twins Winsome and Treasure, on the steps of Leederville Technical School in Richmond Street, c. 1960

- Helen Cozens

Feeding the elephants at Bullen's Circus in Sutherland Park (bottom of Cleaver Street), West Perth, 1950s (This area is now part of the Mitchell Freeway)

CATEGORY TWO — A Photographic Study

- Ron Venables

Two in a series of photographs taken at 95-97 Oxford Street, Leederville, 1928-2000

- Anthea Rogers

The Pole family of 76 Eton Street, North Perth.

CATEGORY THREE — Beatty Park Aquatic Centre

- Helen Cozens

Two photographs taken in 1957 in Beatty Park prior to the building of the Aquatic Centre.

- Maureen Venables

Two from a series of seven photographs taken during the construction of the Beatty Park Aquatic Centre, 1961 to 1962.

- Steve and Suzanne Worner

Two in a series of four photographs taken at Beatty Park during the 1962 British Empire and Commonwealth Games